Associate Adult / Student / Junior: Night Competition Only. No entitlements to Club Championships, Weekend competition, social tennis, night social tennis, no voting rights. Maximum of 5 night competition matches per season, at a cost fixed by the Management Committee. The objective of this category is to help teams from forfeiting and encourage people to join the Club.

Non-Playing Member: No entitlement to any tennis play. This category does not have voting rights.

Access to Courts and Clubhouse

Members are able to use the club facilities at any time during daylight hours and at night, by arrangement, although courts may be reserved for competitions or special events at different times. (See the court schedule page 3.)

There will be times when no-one is at the Club. Adult members may obtain a gate key to the courts (refundable deposit of $20 + $10 fee for the key.)

Juniors must always be accompanied by an Adult, or a designated adult with whom you have arranged to supervise your child.

Current Committee members and contact details are on the notice board and on page 6 of this document.

Social Tennis

Organised social tennis is available:-

Mixed - Monday Morning from 9.00am -Thursday mornings from 9.00am. - Sunday mornings from 9.00am.	Men – Wednesday 1.00pm Men – Thursday evenings (under lights) from 7.00pm

$5.00 per person to cover lights.

Visitors must also pay visitors fees, $6.00 in addition to lighting fee.

This is put into an envelope with your name and why you are paying and then deposit it into the Grey Letterbox in the kitchen. Thank you.

- There is no organised social tennis on public holidays or during school holidays.

Competition Tennis

The Club participates in competitions of various Associations on the following days:-

Junior – Saturday and Sunday mornings (Seasons start in October and May each year)

Senior – Night tennis – Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday.

- Mid-Week Ladies – Tuesday mornings, Thursday morning
- Saturday pm competition

Please notify the Junior Convenor (Details Page 6) if your child would like to play regular competition. Members wishing to play senior competition tennis should contact the Senior Tennis Convenor or the Night Tennis Convenor. Night tennis competition lists are also posted on the clubhouse notice board.

Bar

The Club has a licensed bar, from which a variety of drinks may be purchased. It is used for Club functions or may be opened by a committee member or a Captain of a team during competition play. Visitors are requested to enter their name in the visitor's book.

Under the terms of the licence NO alcohol is to be brought onto the premises and alcohol purchased from the bar must be consumed on the premises.

Newsletter

Our newsletter goes out to all members who have email addresses and is placed on the Club Website, informing members of Club activities. Applicants are encouraged to provide an email address to enable efficient cost effective communications.

Visitors

Members may invite visitors to play on the Club courts. Visitors must be accompanied by a Club member who is required to enter the relevant details in the visitor's book and see that the appropriate fee is paid. Adults $6.00 and Juniors $4.00.

Coaching

Tennis for Everyone, run by Club Coach, Geoff Summers, (Mob. 0437 744 577 Email: tennisforeveryone@yahoo.com.au) provides professional coaching and tennis development. Whether you are seeking ANZ Tennis Hot Shots, group lessons, Fitbit Cardio Tennis, junior development classes, squad/competition training or a private lesson, Tennis for Everyone can tailor a class/session to suit you and your tennis goals. School holiday clinics and tournaments are available at the end of each term. Racquet restringing, repairs and customising, racquet demonstrations and sales as well as tennis accessories are also available.

Tennis Attire

Correct tennis attire and correct shoes are required to be worn at all times while playing on our courts.

Care of Courts

The courts should be bagged after the completion of the day's play.

Care of Clubhouse

Adults, Student, Associate and visiting team members may make use of the tea and coffee facilities, and are required to wash, dry and put away cups etc. after use. If last to leave, please ensure that heaters, fans, air conditioners, clubhouse & toilet lights and barbeque light are switched off and all doors are locked. No Junior member is to remain in the clubhouse on their own; there must always be an Adult member present.

Telephone

A telephone is available in the clubhouse for members' convenience – 50 cents a call. HONOR SYSTEM APPLIES. Currently the Club is substantially out of pocket with the cost of the telephone SO PLEASE PAY. The number of the clubhouse is 9888 8793.

Working Bees

A maintenance committee does the majority of our court and grounds maintenance; however several times a year we hold member working bees. Attendance at three (3) of these working bees will exempt the member from paying the maintenance levy component of their next year's annual subscription. Currently the amount is $25 for Adults and $10 for Juniors. (Family members must have more than one person present at the working bees.)

Conditions of play

Juniors may play socially on the courts only when an Adult is in attendance, or a designated adult with whom you have arranged to supervise your child.

No court can be monopolised by two players when all courts are full and other members are waiting to play, then doubles should be played - except during competition.

Four players shall not occupy a court for more than eight games when other members are waiting to play and all courts are occupied, except during competition.

B.B.Q.

A mains pressure gas B.B.Q. is available for the use of members. Please clean up after use. This is lit by a floodlight so that it may also be used at night.

SOCIAL DAY/NIGHT TENNIS COURT HIRE GUIDELINES

The Management Committee has set down the following guidelines in respect of court use, fees and supervision requirements:-

1. Courts will be used by club members only, although members who have booked courts may invite visitors.

Normal visitors' fees to be paid in addition to night court light fee of $5 per person.

All court booking fees are to be paid to booking officer or the fee is put into an envelope with your name and why you are paying and then deposit it into the Grey Letterbox in the kitchen. Thank you.

2. Court lighting hire fee for members is $10.00 per hour per court. The fee charged covers the period the courts are hired, not from the actual time the lights are first switched on. Court lighting fees and Visitor fees are to be put into an envelope with your name and why you are paying and then deposit it into the Grey Letterbox in the kitchen. Thank you.

Visitors Fees – Adults $6.00 and Juniors $4.00

Minimum period for which a court can be hired is ONE hour.

3. Bookings will be accepted on first come, first serve basis.

Members are expected to keep their bookings and will be charged whether they attend or not, unless weather does not permit play or adequate prior notice of cancellation is given.

4. Correct tennis dress and footwear is to be worn at all times.

5. Normal conditions for supervision of Juniors apply. Refer to page 1

6. Keys must be returned to the booking officer on conclusion of play.

7. The hours that courts may be booked/hired are generally as follows:-

Daylight Saving	8pm –11pm
Outside Daylight Saving Time	6pm – 11pm
